

If something happened to your clients, do they know how their assets would be distributed?

Do you?

In uncertain times, it pays to be sure. Help your clients achieve peace of mind by conducting a Beneficiary Review. This service is designed to help clients determine whether their current beneficiary designations are in synch with their disposition goals. The insurers of American General Life Companies provide the tools you need.

Important note: The purpose of a beneficiary review is to assist policy owners in reviewing their assets and in determining how they will be distributed upon their death. It is not intended to be estate planning, financial planning, or to offer legal or tax advice. If legal, tax or other professional services or advice are needed, the services of a competent professional should be sought.

American General Life Companies, www.americangeneral.com, is the marketing name for the insurance companies and affiliates comprising the domestic life operations of American International Group, Inc., including American General Life Insurance Company and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York.
